- Cooking
- Listening to Music

Dissertation :

Computational analyses of SNPs in Mycobacterium tuberculosis for first line drug resistance.

Additional Work:

- Genetic polymorphisms in Paraoxonase (PONI) gene and its association with pesticides included genotoxicity in agriculture workers.
- General study of New Castle disease virus in poultry organisms.

Hands-on Experience:

- Experienced in data analysis, statistical analysis, and data visualization
- Knowledge of biotechniques such as PCR techniques, Gel electrophoresis, ELISA, SDS- PAGE, staining techniques, DNA/RNA isolation, equipment maintenance.
- Proficient in genomic analysis tools such as BLAST, Clustal omega Familiarity with MS office: excel, word and PowerPoint.
- Handling and dosing of laboratory animals such as mice and rabbits. Docking studies for interpretations.
- Computational studies of drugs and their receptors with help of tools

About Me

Highly motivated Medical Biotechnology student with a background in clinical and computational biology. I have strong analytical skills with knowledge of molecular biology and diagnostics by using biotechnological tools.

Objectives

To obtain a challenging position in field of Biotechnology where I can utilize my analytical and technical skills to contribute the advancement of biological researches.

Qualification

M.Sc (Medical Biotechnology)- Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak - 71% 2021 – 2023

Subjects:

Biochemistry and Metabolism, Bioinformatics, Microbiology, Animal Cell Culture, Genetic Engineering , etc.

B.Sc Biotechnology – Dronacharya Government College , Gurugram – 71% 2018-2021

Subjects:

Chemistry, Biochemistry, Plant Tissue cultures, IPR, genetic engineering, Microbiology etc.

12th – B.K Senior Secondary School- HBSE – 87% 2017

10th – B.K Senior Secondary School- HBSE – 93% 2015
